

How To Ask Your Child Questions That Don't Suck!

- What did you like about school today?
- What didn't you like about school today?
- Who did you play with at recess today and what did you all do?
- Tell me what happened at lunch today.
- Describe your teacher today.
- What did you learn from your teacher today?
- Can you teach me anything that you learned about today?
- Can you tell me about any accomplishments you had today?
- What's something you read about today?
- What's something that happened today that made you upset?
- What's something that happened today that made you laugh?
- What's something that happened today that embarrassed you?
- Was anything hard for you to do today?
- What's something at school that you're getting excited about?
- What's something at school that you're dreading?
- When did you smile the most today?